

School Based Traineeships

The steps to starting your school based traineeships

Are you a current year 10 student and interested in a school based traineeship?

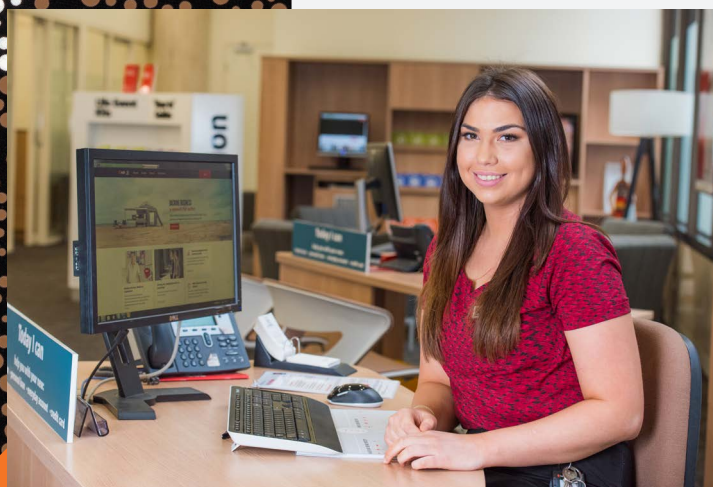

Maxima works with a large range of national and local employers to create rewarding, long term employment opportunities for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander young people.

We are seeking current year 10 Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander students with high school attendance and passing grades in Maths and English who are interested in School-Based Traineeships.

While completing year 11 or 12 studies, trainees will:

- Get paid while learning new skills
- Achieve a Nationally Recognised Qualification
- Kick-start your career in the industry
- Receive support from your employer and Indigenous mentors
- Embark on a career with your chosen employer or explore other opportunities at the end of your traineeship
